

| March 2010 |

2Know

KM Newsletter

ROM News

- Knowledge Management 101 - Link
- Some reasons why business intelligence tools aren't the right fit - Link

01

WEB Discussion

In a bustling meeting room, the WEB Discussion emerges, connecting workers and experts through portal platforms. This conference, bridging knowledge gaps, identifying needs, and fostering camaraderie, requires careful planning and respectful engagement for optimal success.

To full article

To full article

02

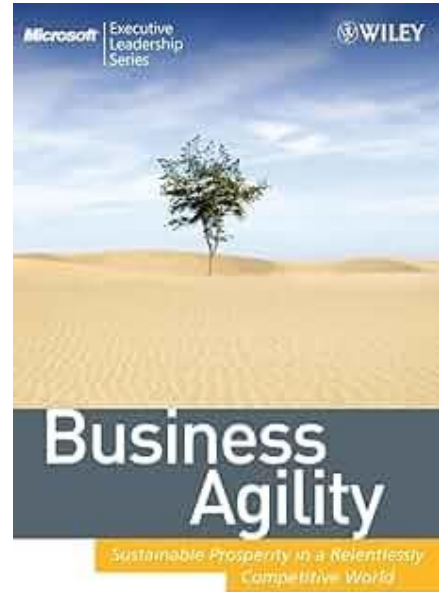

Setting up and analyzing a global portal: challenges and directive questions

This text explores the complexities of establishing a global portal in a diverse organizational landscape. It delves into crucial considerations such as defining objectives, selecting portal languages, integrating local and global information, and navigating challenges in launching and implementation.

03

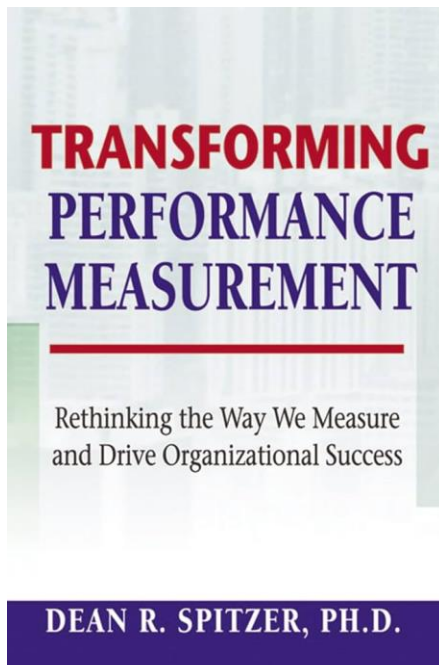

Business Agility - Book Review

"Business Agility: Sustainable Prosperity in a Relentlessly Competitive World" (2009) by Michael Hugos explores how organizations can thrive in a competitive landscape by focusing on innovation, balancing capabilities, visibility, motivation, and computing infrastructure. The book emphasizes awareness, balancing, renewal, and provides practical tips for success. Highly recommended for those seeking insights into achieving business agility.

Michael H. Hugos

To full article

DEAN R. SPITZER, PH.D.

To full article

04

Transforming Performance Management - Book Review

"Transforming Performance Management" by Dean Spitzer (2007) challenges conventional measurement approaches, emphasizing organizational culture's role. It explores why and how to change, emphasizing paradigm shifts. The book introduces 34 impactful measurements, urging readers to reevaluate and innovate performance management.